

LIABILITY WAIVER FOR ANALYSIS OF RAW MILK

The client understands that the tests were not designed to comply with the Standard Methods for the Examination of Milk Products, but were designed based upon standard microbiological techniques that are disclosed on the sample reporting form.

Microbial Research Incorporated expressly states that it makes no representation or warranty regarding the adequacy of the samples submitted for testing for any specific use or application, that being the determined responsibility of the sponsoring client. The client assumes liability of any people to whom the milk is distributed or sold.

Microbial Research Incorporated's liability for any loss or damage resulting from its actions or failure to act shall not exceed the cost of the testing performed, and Microbial Research Incorporated shall not be liable for any incidental or consequential damages.
